

The Daily Courant.

[Thursday, January 30. 1707.]

From the Paris Gazette, dated Jan. 29.

Madrid, Jan. 11.

AFTER the taking of Exea, the Count d'Ayaz Major General, was detach'd from Sanguesa with a Body of regular Troops that had been posted in several Places, on the Frontier, and a great Number of the Militia of the Country, and he march'd towards Uncastillo. The Rebels being terrified, abandon'd the Town which was plunder'd and burnt, and all those that remain'd in it were disarm'd. The 25th of last Month, he march'd to Lustea, in which were 1000 Miquelets or People of the Country, who at first shew'd a Resolution to defend themselves, making a great Fire from 4 Culverines: But seeing themselves attack'd vigorously, they retir'd with Precipitation. The Culverins, some Ammunition and 1 Colours were taken, and the Place given up to be plunder'd. 6 Prisoners were taken, and on this Occasion not one Man was lost. The chastising of these Rebels, has made several neighbouring Places submit to the King's Clemency, among others Falardues and Malpica, and the Inhabitants have been us'd with all possible Lenity. 'Tis advis'd from Badajox the 31 of December, that the 28th the Horse of Elvas making an Excursion to fetch off Cattle that were grazing on the side of the River Caya, a Party of Spanish Horse led by Don Juan Bautista Pignatelli Captain in the Regiment of S. Vincent, attack'd and defeated them, killing 15 on the Spot, making 6 Prisoners, and taking 14 Horses. The King has given the Government of Zamora to Don Alonso Madariaga Marquis de Villafuerte, and the Presidentship of Guatimala to Major General Don Bartolome de Aponte, in Consideration of their Services. His Majesty has granted Permission to Don Joseph de Arragon, to put into his Coat of Arms the 3 Pieces of Artillery that he took at Alcantara.

From the Amsterdam Courant, dated Feb. 5.

Venice, Jan. 21. 'Tis advis'd from Modena, that the Generals Weltz and Langalerie return'd thither the 14th from Bologna; that the Germans had plac'd 18 Cannon Forty Pounders in Battery against the Castle, and begun to fire vigorously from them; and that General Langalerie had assur'd them they might be Masters of the Castle in 20 Days, provided they were not oblig'd to stay for more heavy Cannon which was arriv'd at Rubera, and which was necessary for making a sufficient Breach.

A Letter from a Swedish Officer.

Leipsich, Jan. 25. 'Yesterday King Augustus made a Visit to the King of Sweden: He promis'd his Swedish Majesty to execute without Delay the Articles of the Treaty that remain to be made good. He has order'd that all the French and Germans taken in the Battle of Kalisch shall be set at Liberty, and some Swedish Officers are already gone to receive them. The Swedes appear dissatisfied that King Augustus's Troops have retir'd from Cracow, before those of K. Stanislaus were at Hand to take Possession of that Place. However, they look upon this Affair to be of no great Consequence, and easy to be redress'd, the Party of King Stanislaus encreasing daily. General Wiskowski has sent Deputies to make his Submission to him. Little Heed is given to what M. Schembeck pretends to do in Poland, because his Primate-ship depends by the Treaty of Peace on the good Pleasure of King Stanislaus. That King Dines to Day with Count Piper; M. Printz is expected back from Berlin, and 'tis thought that Minister is commission'd to acknowledge King Stanislaus.

France has already acknowledg'd him: And the City of Dantzick have by a Letter made their Submission to him, and their Deputies are on the Way to make their Submission in Form.

Hague, Feb. 4. 'The Prince of Nassau Friseland, having pass'd some Weeks here, is about to go to Leuwarden, where the States of the Province of Friseland are to assemble. That Prince, who is grown tall and lusty, will be of Age the 3d of August next. 'Tis thought the States will make him the Compliment of dispensing with his taking upon him the Office and Emoluments of General of their Foot for 2 or 3 Months before that Time. And 'tis expected by intelligent Persons, that when he is out of the Guardianship of the Princess his Mother, he will make little Difficulty to agree to the last Proposal of the King of Prussia for dividing with him the Inheritance of the late King William, because they take that Proposal to be very fair, or generous rather. There has been a Contest in Spain, between the Count de Noyelles, Lieutenant General Freisheim, and Major General Lille-Marais, about the disposing of the military Employments that become Vacant under them: The States have pass'd a Resolution, that when their Troops in that Country act together, the Count de Noyelles shall have the sole Nomination to such Vacancies; but when they shall act separately, each of the 3 shall have that Power over the Body he commands. The States have sent for M. d'Auverquerque from Brussels, to consult him in Order to the regulating several Military Affairs. They have written to the Assembly of the 5 Circles of the Empire met at Hailbron, to desire them not to separate, till General Dops, who is on his Way thither, has conferr'd with them on the Part of their High Mightinesses.

EDINBURGH.

Minutes of the Proceedings in Parliament, Wednesday Jan. 22. Three several Overtures and Resolves given in the 20th and 21st relating to the way of Electing the Representatives for Scotland to the Parliament of Great-Britain, were again read.

And after reasoning thereon, the Vote was put, Whether the Sixteen Peers who are to be Representatives for Scotland in the Parliament of Great-Britain, shall be sent by Rotation or by Election, and it carried by Election.

Then it was moved, that it be consider'd what Way the Election shall be, whether by Balloting, or by an open Election: And after Debate thereon, the Vote was put, whether it shall be by open Election, or by Balloting, and it carried by open Election.

Thereafter moved to proceed to consider what Proportions the Barons and Burrows shall have of the Forty five Members that are to sit in the House of Commons of Great-Britain; and after reasoning thereon, the further debate was adjourn'd till next Sederunt of Parliament.

Then the Parliament was adjourn'd till Friday next at 10 of the Clock.

The Protests on the Part of the Duke of Douglass and by the Duke of Hamilton, in relation to the Privilege of having the first Seat and Vote in Parliament, mention'd in former Minutes, were as follows.

The Protest given in for the Duke of Douglass.

We Undersubscribers, Tutors, Testamentars to his Grace the Duke of Douglass, whereof three is a Quorum, in Name and Behalf of the said Duke; Forasmuch as his Grace the Duke of Douglass, and his Heirs, has by their Investitures and Honours of the Estate of Douglass (in Consideration of the Great and Faithful Services done and performed to this Crown and Kingdom by his Ancestors) provided to them the Honour of Leading the Van of the Arms of Scotland in the Day of Battle, the carrying of the Crown of Scotland in Processions, and giving the first Vote in all Parliaments, liaments, Councils or Conventions in Scotland; And ſicklike by the Twentieth Article of the Union, all Heretable Offices are reſerved to the Owners as Rights of Property in the ſame manner as they are now enjoyed by the Laws of Scotland, notwithstanding of this Treaty; Whereby his Graces ſoſaid Offices and Priviledges, by Parity of Reaſon and Juſtice, ought to be preferred: Yet ſeeing the intire Union of the two Kingdoms will be attended with an Union of their Armas, Crowns and Councils, whereby his Graces Offices and Priviledges may ſeem to be of more difficult Explication, his Graces Tutors and Guardians, in his Pupillarity, do now, before the Treaty be ratified in in this Parliament, judge it, indiſpenſibly, their Duty, for his Graces Intereſt, in his Name and theirs Underſcribers, as Tutors to him, with all Humility, to proteſt, that the ſaid Treaty may not in any ſort prejudice the ſoſaid Honours and Priviledges belonging to his Grace and Succeſſors, which have been the Glorious Rewards and Marks of Honour to the illuſtrious Families of Douglafs and Angus for their Loyalty, great and Faithful Services to the Crown and Kingdom of Scotland; and that this their Proteſt may be receiv'd and marked in the Minutes and Records of Parliament.

The Proteſt given in by the Duke of Hamilton.

Foraſmuch as there is a Proteſtation made in behalf of the Duke of Douglafs, in relation to his Pretentions of having the firſt Seat and Vote in Parliament, which Proteſtation being altogether Groundleſs; Therefore I James Duke of Hamilton do proteſt in the contrair, in regard that none of the ſaid Duke of Douglafs his Predeceſſors has or enjoyed any ſuch Privilege ſince there were Dukes or Marquiſſes created in Scotland, and my Predeceſſors were dignified with Parents of Marquiſs and Duke ſucceſſively, long before he or his Predeceſſors had the ſame. Secondly, William Earl of Angus, the ſaid Duke his Predeceſſor, did, upon the Fourth day of June one Thouſand ſix hundred and Thirty Three Years, Reſign all Right and Claim that he or his Predeceſſors or Succeſſors had or ſhould have to that Privilege of firſt ſitting and Voteing in Parliament, in His Maſteſties hands; Which, Reſignation is Regiſtrat in the Books of Parliament the Twentieth day of the ſaid Month of June, one Thouſand ſix hundred and thirty three Years. Thirdly, I and my Predeceſſors have been in continual Poſſeſſion of having the firſt Seat and of firſt Voteing in Parliament, and have been firſt called in Rolls of Parliament paſt Memory of Man; And upon this Proteſtation I take Inſtruments, and deſire the ſame to be inſert in the Records of Parliament.

Deale, Jan. 28. 'Yesterday came in the Jacob and Neptune from Leghorne; alſo the Martin Galley from Liſbon. A Midlebourg Privateer of 34 Guns and 220 Men, was Stranded on the Goodwin Sand the 25th Inſtant, but by the Diligence of our Town-Boats, all the Men were ſav'd excepting 20, who were knock'd on the head or drown'd by the Main-Maſt's falling into their Long-boat which was then a putting off from their Ship's ſide.

London, January 30.

Letters that came in Yesterday from Portſmouth adviſe, that Vice-Admiral Vander Goes, who ſome Days ago ſail'd from thence with 9 Dutch Men of War and about 40 Transports with Recruits, for Portugal, and alſo with 7 Dutch outward-bound Eaſt-India Ships, had been forc'd by contrary Weather to return thither.

AT the Theatre Royal in Drury-Lane, to Morrow being Friday, the 1ſt of January, will be preſented a Play, call'd, Mackbeth. With all the Original Flyings and Machins. The Muſick as compos'd by Mr. Leveridge, and perform'd by him and others. With proper Dances by Monſieur du Ruel, Monſieur du Bargues and others. And on Saturday next will be perform'd the Opera of Camilla.

By her Maſteſty's Company of Comedians.

AT the Queen's Theatre in the Hay-Market, to Morrow being Friday, the 31ſt of January, will be reviv'd a Comedy, call'd, The Adventures of Five Hours. All the parts being perform'd to the beſt Advantage. And on Saturday next (at the Deſire of ſeveral Ladies of Quality) will be reviv'd a Play, (never Aſted there before) call'd, Aurengzebe, or, The Great Mogul. Theſe Plays are Sold by J. Knapton at the Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard, and B. Liſtoe next Nando's Coffee-Houſe, Temple-Bar.

Dropt from a Lady's Neck, on Wednesday the 22d of this Inſtant January, betwixt the Cocoa-Tree Chocolate-Houſe in the Pall-mall and St. James's Houſe on the ſame ſide of the Way, a Diamond Croſs, with 6 ſingle Collets put on a Braſs Wyar, 4 of them longiſh and the other 2 round, with a large Collet on the Top hung to a Black String, all ſet in Silver, mark'd with an H. behind. Whoever hath found it and will bring it to Mr. Campbell at the 3 Crowns in the Strand near Charing-Croſs, or Mr. Hallit at the Golden Angel in Cheapſide, ſhall have 10 Guineas Reward; or if offer'd to be Pawn'd, Sold, or Valu'd, whoever diſcovers it, ſo as it may be had again, ſhall have the ſaid Reward.

On Monday next, being the 3d of February, at Tarrant's Coffee-Houſe within Aldgate, will begin the Sale by Auction of the Library of Edward Seymer, Eſq; late Member of Parliament, being an Extraordinary Collection of the moſt valuable English Authors; conſiſting of Divinity, Hiſtory, Travels, Voyages, Poetry, Painting, Mathematicks, Miſcellanies, with ſeveral curious Authors, in Antiquity, Anatomy, and Polite Learning; for the Generality neaſly bound and gilt back. Sold by Edmund Curll Bookſeller at the Peacock without Temple-Bar, by whom Catalogues are deliver'd, and likewiſe at the Place of Sale, where the Books may be view'd to Morrow before the Sale begins.

The true Balfam of Gathay, ſo eminently known theſe many Years for its incomparable Virtues in giving immediate Eaſe in the Gout and Rheumatism, beyond any other Remedy yet publiſh'd, is to be had only of Mr. James Dodd at Maſon's Coffee-houſe in Bartholomew-lane behind the Royal Exchange at 2 s. 6 d. a Box with directions. At the ſame Place is alſo to be ſold the true Golden Snuff, one of the nobleſt Secrets yet found out for ſpeedily and actually removing moſt diſtempers of the Brain, Eyes or Ears, the more particular Virtues whereof, and the way of uſing it are fully deſcrib'd in the Paper of directions, ſeal'd up with the Author's Seal, being an Elephant, and the figure of an Elephant ſtamp on the back of each Paper, with a Latin inſcription about it. The ſaid Snuff is alſo to be had from the Author at the Green Balcony in Durham-yard in the Strand; London, with good allowance to thoſe who wou'd ſell it again, and a large Paper Gratis, for a Frame, to hang up in their Houſes or Shops.

The only True Elixir for the Gout and Rheumatism, which with the greateſt ſafety gives ſenſible and ſpeedy Eaſe in the extremity of Pain, preventing the Gout from coming into the Stomach, and removing it if there; by which alſo any conſiderable Relapſe may be prevented, if the eaſy directions ſhall be obſerv'd. Note, if any Perſon ſhall find no relief after the taking 3 doſes according to the directions, producing the remaining part of the Bottle, they ſhall have their Money return'd. It's to be Sold at Mr. Brown's at the Green-Dragon Bookſeller near Temple-Bar, at the Turk's Head Coffee-Houſe over-againſt the Fountain Tavern in the Strand, and Will's, from Battſon's Coffee-Houſe in Cornhill, price 5 s. the Bottle.

All ſorts of Ruptures and Broken Bellies cured; and Truſſes made of all ſorts with Springs, Joynts, Screws or plain, ſo eaſy that none ſuch are made, as many by experience can teſtify, they being without pain or trouble, and no hindrance to buſineſs, and ſtrait Stockings made by Wm Collier at the Bell and 2 Naked Boys in St. John's-Lane near Clarkenwell.

A Proſpect of the City and Cathedral of Rochefort, with the Bridge, Caſtle, Ships in Harbour, Dock, &c. is now almoſt finiſh'd and will be ſpeedily publiſh'd; thoſe that are pleas'd to be Subſcribers are deſir'd to pay in their Money by the 12th of February next (which is 1 s. in hand and the ſame at delivery) to Dr. Conny Phyſician at Rochefort, Capt. Finch at Chatham-dock, the Author James Collins at Linthead near Sittingborn in Kent, and David Mortier Print and Mapſeller at the Eraſmus Head near Beauford-Buildings in the Strand. Note, None ſold under 2 s. 6 d.

This Day is publiſh'd,

The Articles of the Union as they Paſſ'd with Amendments in the Parliament of Scotland, and Ratify'd by the Touch of the Royal Scepter at Edinburgh, January 16, 1707. By James Duke of Queensberry, her Maſteſty's High Commiſſioner for that Kingdom, price 2 d. Printed for Andrew Bell at the Croſs-keys and Bible in Cornhill. Where are alſo to be had, The Journal of the Proceedings of the Lords Commiſſioners of both Nations in the Treaty of Union which began the 16th of April, 1706. and was concluded the 22d of July following. With the State of the Revenues of both Kingdoms, and Publick Debts of the Nation, the Proportions the preſent Exciſe on Liquor in Scotland do bear to the ſeveral Branches of the Revenues in England; with the Articles then Agreed on. Printed at Edinburgh, by Order of the Parliament of Scotland; and Re-printed at London from the Authentick Copy. A Sermon Preach'd to the People at the Mercat-croſs of Edinburgh, on the Subject of the Union.

This Day is publiſh'd,

The Reaſonableneſs of bringing in a Bill, in order to the Royal Aſſent, to oblige the Clergy to Reſidency. Humbly Dedicated to the Honourable Members of both Houſes of Parliament. To which is added, A New-Years Gift for the Non-Reſident Clergy, being a large Appendix to the Caſe of Non-Reſidency. By a hearty Lover of the Orthodox Clergy. Printed for John Morphew near Stationer's-Hall, price 6 d.

Just publiſh'd,

Poems on ſeveral Occaſions: Written in Imitation of Horace, Ovid, Martial, Theocritus, Bacchylides, Anacreon and others. To which is prefix'd, A Diſcourſe on Criticiſm, and the Liberty of Writing. By S. Cobb, A. M. Printed for R. Clavel at the Peacock, and R. and J. Bonwick at the Red-Lyon in St. Paul's Church-yard.

This Day is publiſh'd,

Some Account of Mines, and the Advantage of them to this Kingdom. With an Appendix relating to the Mine-Adventure in Wales. Printed for John Wyat at the Reſe in St. Paul's Church-yard.

This Day is publiſh'd,

A Sermon Preach'd at Hand-Alley, the 31ſt of December, 1706. Being the Day of Thankſgiving appointed by the Queen. By Daniel Williams, Miniſter of the Goſpel. Printed for Lawrence at the Angel in the Poultry.

Lately publiſh'd,

A Sermon Preach'd in the Cathedral and Metropo- litan Church of St. Peter's in York, Dec. 31. 1706. Being the day of Thankſgiving appointed by her Maſteſty, for rendering our moſt hearty Thanks to Almighty God, for the great and wonderful Succeſſes vouchſaf'd this Year, to the Arms of her Maſteſty and her Allies, &c. By Wm Stainforth, D. D. Rector of Barnabrough, and Canon Reſidentary of York. Sold by D. Midwinter at the Roſe and Crown in St. Paul's Church-yard.

Lately publiſh'd,

I. The Lord Biſhop of Lincoln's Farewell Sermon Preach'd at St. James's Church, &c. II. Two Sermons Preach'd before the Queen at St. James's Chappel, one the 3d and the other the 5th of November laſt. By Dr. Stanhope Dean of Canterbury. III. Mr. Broughton's Sermon Preach'd before the Queen the 29th of September laſt. IV. The Wiſdom of Solomon Explain'd upon ſome of his Select Proverbs, by way of Dialogue, with Obſervations Moral, Political and Hiſtorical. Printed for R. Sare at Gray's-Inn Gate in Holborn.

LONDON: Printed, and ſold by Sam. Buckler at the Dolphin in Little-Britain.